

Since 25th May 2018, Poland has been subject to the Regulation on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data (EU 2016/676), called the General Data Protection Regulation(GDPR).

Therefore, PAROLA Translation Office is the your Data Controller, while the Data Protection Officer is the owner of PAROLA Translation Office.

Due to the fact that we have your personal data in our translation database, we inform you that this data shall not be disclosed to third parties or entities, nor shall be transferred to third countries.

Your personal data will be used to create and forward your orders for translation and interpretation jobs. This data will be in our database until you withdraw your consent to the processing of personal data for the above purposes.

You have the right to withdraw data from our database, limit its use, rectify it, transfer it, or lodge a complaint to the supervisory body regarding data protection.

Withdrawal of consent must be done by sending an application to the following address:

jacek.gurgul@parola.com.pl.

Providing data is voluntary, however, it is necessary in order to receive inquiries or orders for translation and interpretation jobs.

You do not have to reply to this information, it is sent to inform you about the new regulations on data protection.

Best regards,

dr Jacek Gurgul, owner
